Re: Extended HOME Preservation of Affordable Housing and Homebuyer Rounds

Due to remaining HOME funds and the low number of applications submitted by the original due date, IHCD is extending the deadline for submission of the HOME Preservation of Affordable Housing and Homebuyer Rounds. These special rounds were previously announced in RED-15-03. New applications will be accepted until Friday May 8, 2015.

All applications that were previously submitted by the original deadline of March 27, 2015 will be given initial consideration and these awards will be announced in May. Applications submitted during this second extended round will be reviewed separately and awards will be announced in June.

Policy and application documents are available on the HOME webpage.
